MEDICINAL. BOOZE OR MEDICINE?

Which will you have? If a woman suffering from one of the delicate ailments peculiar to her sex it will be well for her to know that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the only remedy advertised for such maladies which is absolutely free from intoxicating liquors and all other harmful agents. The good you feel from its use is not the delusive exhilaration from a tipping beverage, from which the system reacts into a worse condition than before. It may be a little slower in manifesting its bracing and invigorating action, but its benefits are none the less positive and, best of all, they are lasting. It's an honest medicine—not a beverage.

"I have been taking your medicine for the last three weeks and can say it is giving strength," writes Mrs. South Kimball, of 606 East Madison Street, Mount Pleasant, Iowa. "I have been having very poor health all winter. I doctored with our family doctor but was relieved only while taking the medicine. I took Dr. Pierce's medicine several years ago. I knew it was good for one suffering with female troubles. Have taken only one bottle and am gaining strength very fast. I could not eat nor sleep when I began taking the Favorite Prescription. It has troubled me and I had cold and numb spells till my heart would almost stop beating. Have had a child since first taking your medicine. If I continue with your treatment an positive I will be cured."

Every suffering woman in this land should write to Dr. Pierce and learn how certainly he can help her to health and strength. It costs nothing to write and receive entirely free the advice of one of the most experienced physicians in this country. His great thousand-page book, the Common Sense Medical Adviser, in stiff paper covers, will be sent free for one-cent stamps the bare cost of mailing; or, send 41 stamps for cloth bound. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

These ORIGINAL Little Pills, first put up by Dr. R. V. Pierce over 40 years ago, have been much imitated but never equalled. They're made of purely vegetable, concentrated and refined medicinal principles, extracted from native American roots and plants. They speedily relieve and cure cold, torpid and deranged stomachs, liver and bowels and their attendant distressful ailments. One or two a laxative, three or four a cathartic.

Don't allow the dealer to insult your intelligence by offering his own remedy to you instead of this well-known preparation of Dr. Pierce.

FOR LADIES, TOO.

They Can Stop Their Hair Falling Out With Herpelide.

Ladies who have thin hair and whose hair is falling out, can prevent the hair falling out, and thicken the growth, with Newbro's "Herpelide." Besides, Herpelide is one of the most agreeable hair dressings there is. Herpelide kills the dandruff germ that eats the hair off at the root. After the germ is destroyed, the root will shoot up, and the hair grow long as ever. Even a sample will convince any lady that Newbro's Herpelide is an indispensable toilet requisite. It contains no oil or grease, it will not stain or dry. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c in stamps for sample to The Herpelide Co., Detroit, Mich.

Pathetic Plea of an Erring Wife.

"For the sake of their child" Mr. Sydney Ales Hankey, late of the Imperial Light Horse, twice forgave his wife's unfaithfulness. The third time he stole his heart against her, and Saturday, in the Divorce Court, in London, asked for his marriage to be dissolved. The marriage took place in 1891, at Sydney, New South Wales, and there Mr. and Mrs. Hankey lived for some years, subsequently going to South Africa. A child was born, and for eight years they lived a happy married life. In 1899 Mr. Welded W. Attwell, an officer in the Colonial Scouts, became acquainted with them, and soon afterwards Mr. Hankey found his wife and Mr. Attwell under circumstances which left no doubt of the relations between them. Mr. Attwell was promptly turned out of the house, but "for the sake of the child" the wife was forgiven. Shortly afterwards Mr. Hankey joined the Imperial Light Horse, and took his part in the war, sending his wife and child to some relatives. While her husband was fighting, Mrs. Hankey again became intimate with Mr. Attwell and the husband heard of it. He promptly took his child out of his wife's keeping, but relented. He wrote to her offering to forgive her again for the "little one's sake." She returned home and promised never to see Mr. Attwell again. Shortly after Mr. Hankey sent his wife and child home to England, and there she once more met the man who had been the evil influence in her life. They stayed at the Hotel Cecil.

Again the husband learnt of his wife's ill-doing, and this time he refused to forgive. He received several piteous letters from her, but, at last, realizing that her appeals were hopeless, she wrote: "Good-bye dear. Think tenderly of me sometimes, dear. I hope life will be spared to both, so that I can prove my remorse."

The husband instituted the divorce proceedings, and when Mrs. Hankey received the usual papers she wrote again to her husband, saying she had expected his action, but when it came it was a "terrible blow." She added: "The clause as to the custody of the child has never left my memory since I read it. For God's sake do not take my baby from me. She is absolutely all I have to make life livable."

Later, in January last, she wrote, imploring her husband "to put out the helping hand you held out to me four years ago, and see if you cannot find it in your heart to offer me the forgiveness you offered them. If you only knew how I long and pray for your forgiveness you might, perhaps, be merciful."

But the husband refused, and later he was granted a decree nisi, with the custody of the child.

Had Premotion of Her Fate.
The authorities of Logan county, W. Va., now have reason to believe that two persons had a hand in the murder of Rosa White, the girl who was killed last Friday night near Chapmansville. Fred Stratton, under arrest for the crime and closely guarded to prevent lynching, stoutly proclaims his innocence, and his attorneys say he will prove an alibi when the proper time comes. He was brought from jail yesterday afternoon to the courtroom for a preliminary hearing. The crowd about the courthouse was large, the faces of many women being visible in the throng. The proceedings in court were very brief. Stratton's attorney stated that he desired to waive examination, and asked that he be returned to jail at once. An effort was made to have Stratton transferred to the Huntington jail, but the court refused this request. It is stated that police have come into the possession of evidence that Stratton, whom they believe guilty, had an accomplice in the murder of Rosa White, and it is expected that an arrest will be made today. They refuse to give the name of the suspect, but assert that the evidence is conclusive. Mrs. White, the mother of the dead girl, made the statement yesterday that her daughter had told her some days ago that she had a premonition that she was to be murdered, but her mother scoffed at the idea and the daughter mentioned no names.

Czar and the Reform Movement.
The delay in the issuance of the imperial manifesto outlining reforms has led to the wildest rumors, according to which Emperor Nicholas of Russia has turned back on the idea of making any concessions, the immediate downfall of Interior Minister Sviatopolk-Mirsky is imminent and the prospective nomination of Lieutenant General Kleigels, governor general of Kiev, as his successor will be looked for. These reports are entirely without foundation. It is beyond question that the measures shortly to be announced will be entirely unsatisfactory to the extremists, and to many liberals, who will be content with nothing less than a complete revolution of the government. The proposition of a national assembly, the Emperor, after careful consultation with his ministers and other advisers, has rejected as impracticable and impossible under the existing conditions, but what is termed a reform programme of rational measures of reform in the direction of liberality has been decided upon, and shortly will be announced. At the same time, in order to put a stop to the ferment into which the country has been thrown by the present agitation, the announcement will be made in such a fashion as to leave the people under no illusions regarding the government's position.

A London Fog.

London was enveloped yesterday in a black fog, more dense than anything witnessed during the last two years. As early as 2 p. m. the city was lighted up everywhere the same as at night, but even electricity and gas failed to dispel the gloom. The fog was particularly thick in the West End, where the streets were crowded with Christmas shoppers. In many places the traffic was almost completely stopped, and the greatest care was necessary to avoid accidents, a number of which have already been reported. As night closed in the density increased and vehicle traffic in the most crowded section of the center of London was completely stopped. Singularly, the fog was not so thick in the East End as in the West End, but within a circle of a mile, with Trafalgar Square as the center, it was so opaque that foot-passengers lost their way. Some of the scenes witnessed were pitiful, some were ridiculous, and the whole was extremely weird. There were instances in which women became hysterical, and even the police lost their sense of direction, and omnibus drivers became confused and drove onto the sidewalks, until finally all traffic was held up. At the main crossings and on the streets leading thereto long, shadowy lines of omnibuses, cabs, and wagons loaded with Christmas packages stood motionless. The most brilliant electric lights only served to make the darkness visible. Torch boys were requisitioned, and they did a rushing trade.

Thick fog prevailed again today.

Fat Woman Sat on Captive.

Calmly indifferent to the jeers of passers-by, a fat female sat down on an alleged shoplifter in the snow on Sixth avenue, in New York, on Monday, and there she stayed, despite the squirming and squealing of her victim, until two policemen came along and put the captive under arrest. The detective was Miss Jennie O'Connor, and she told Magistrate Barlow that she saw her captive put on a $30 cloak in the department store where Miss O'Connor is employed and walked out. She followed her to the street and asked her to re-enter the store. The woman refused, and when Miss O'Connor tried to drag her into the store she sat down in the snow. Then Miss O'Connor sat on her and kept her from escaping. The prisoner gave her name as Mrs. Mary Anstrom. She was held in $1000 bail for court.

Worst of All Experiences.

Can anything be worse than to feel that every minute will be your last? Such was the experience of Mrs. S. H. Newson, Decatur, Ala. "I endured insufferable pain from indigestion, stomach and bowel trouble. Death seemed inevitable when doctors and all remedies failed. At length I was induced to try Electric Bitters and the result was miraculous. I improved at once and now I'm completely recovered. For Liver, Kidney, Stomach and Bowel trouble Electric Bitters is the only medicine. Only 50c. It's guaranteed by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, druggists."

Head About to Burst From Severe Bilious Attack.

"I had a severe bilious attack and felt like my head was about to burst when I got hold of a free sample of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets. I took a dose of them after supper and the next day felt like a new man and have been feeling happy ever since," says Mr. J. W. Smith of Jullif, Texas. For biliousness, stomach troubles and constipation these Tablets have no equal. Price 25 cents. For sale by Gibson & Timberman and W. F. Creighton & Co.

Beware of Counterfeits.

"DeWitt's is the only genuine Witch Hazel Salve," writes J. L. Tucker, of Centre, Ala. "I have used it in my family for Piles, Cuts and Burns for years and can recommend it as the best Salve on the market. Every family should keep it, as it is an invaluable household remedy, and should always be kept on hand for immediate use." Mrs. Samuel Gage, of North Bush, N. Y., says: "I had a fever sore on my ankle for twelve years that the doctors could not cure. All salves and blood remedies proved worthless. I could not walk for two years. Finally I was persuaded to try DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve, which has completely cured me. It is a wonderful relief." DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cures without leaving a scar. Sold by all druggists.
